SOME STUDY SPACES

The Pit is centrally located on the 1st floor and has lots of computers and two printers (there are printers by the classrooms at the SE and NW corners of the 1st floor, too).

Group Studies are on the 2nd floor. They are reservable online or at the door. They are meant for—you got it—groups of two or more. If one person is occupying a group study, even if that person has a reservation, a group may claim the room.

Quiet/Silent Study is available in the 3rd floor reading rooms where most of our books are. While there are no individual study rooms, there are big individual carrels along the windows and elsewhere in the two rooms. There are a few computers and a printer in the SW corner.

Please ask for help!

The staff members in the various units in the GAC are here because of our students. You are not bothering us by asking for help. We WANT you to ask for help! And here's where you can get it:

Library Service Desk, 1st floor: help finding or using library resources; checking out books, course reserves, or equipment; help accessing books and articles we don't have; research help

IT Help Desk, 1st floor: help with your devices, network access, printing, staplers

Center for Student Achievement, 2nd floor: supplemental instruction; tutoring; help with study skills, time management, note-taking, test-taking strategies; success coaching

University Writing Center, 2nd floor: help with, you guessed it, writing for all classes and all disciplines and not just papers—lab reports, PowerPoints, lesson plans, personal statements for graduate schools, scholarship applications, and much more

Math Emporium, 2nd floor: math tutoring

These services are FREE. If you start feeling overwhelmed academically, there is no reason and no need to suffer in silence! Take advantage of our help.
