*6176	HIST 612-191	SPECIAL TOPICS SEMINAR Subtitle: Women in United States History NOTE: Graduate Credit Only. This course will consider significant social, political, cultural, legal, and institutional developments in the history of women of the United States from the 1890s through the present day. It will also explore women's participation in well-known historical events and periods - such as World War II and the Civil Rights era - and also suggest an entirely new periodization of U.S. History, an interpretation of history in which women's lives, priorities, and experiences take center stage.	3	LEC W	07:00PM	-09:45PM	TE 252	CASE
