The Library and Learning Resources Committee is charged to review the "Technology Fluency" and "Technology-Mediated Instructional Material" sections of the Faculty Handbook and bring proposed revisions to the Faculty Senate no later than the March 28, 2022 meeting.* The depth of necessary revision is left to the committee's judgement, but may include a full rewrite of the sections. It is recommended that at least one member of the Provost's Office be included in an advisory capacity in the committee's work on this charge.

*The proposed revisions must be submitted to the Faculty Senate President by March 23 for inclusion in the March 28 meeting.
